2 Ways To Win!

1st way to win the above prize(s) is to Enter Adult Enduro For The First Time Ever. Meaning, if you have ever entered one of the above enduros, then you are not eligible at that enduro to enter to win the prizes listed above via this method, see 2nd method. Even if that adult has no child nor a sibling participating in the Jr Enduro Series, that adult will have one ticket automatically placed in the raffle jar to win one of the above grand prizes. Drawing will be at the Valley Forge Trail Riders (VFTR) Adult enduro trophy ceremony and contestants do not have to be present to win. Adults wishing to participate in this program must fill out this form. If you are eligible and fill out this form you will have one ticket with your name on it placed in the raffle jar.

2nd way to win is to Enter Jr & Adult Enduro AND you will triple your chances to win! if an adult enters one of the above enduros on Sunday and a family member enters the same enduro on Saturday, the adult will be eligible for grand prizes described above, even if that adult has ridden the enduro they are entering for. For every event that both the child and related adult enter the Saturday Jr Enduro and Sunday Adult Enduro, 3 tickets will be placed in the raffle jar to win the adult grand prizes described above! Therefore, if the child and the adult family member enters all six junior/adult enduros together, you will have 18 tickets automatically entered in raffle jar!

The final drawing will be at the VFTR event adult trophy ceremony 9/24/17. Contestants do not have to be present at trophies to win. Contestants can fill out the Free Rekluse/Factory Connection/Adventure Sport/Boyesen form at sign up or print it out and bring it to the event.
